Thank you for your questions and suggestions. Our response to your RFAI is as follows:

Schedule A-P

As previously indicated, in accordance with 11 CFR 110, and as a part of its regular contributions screening process, RFP reviews each contribution received for possible regulatory related issues. All contributions received by RFP that exceed the contribution limits are reattributed, redesignated or refunded in full compliance with the procedures set forth in 11 CFR 110.1(k)(3)(ii)B, 11 CFR 110.1(b)(3)(i), and 11 CFR 110.1(b)(3)(i). As noted in the RFAI, RFP takes the additional step of noting, via memo text language associated with each such transaction entry, that the committee is taking all necessary and reasonable actions to remedy any potential contribution limit issue.

The disposition of each contribution listed on the RFAI addendums titled "Excessive Contributions Designated as Future Reattributions" and "Excessive Contributions Designated as Future Refunds" will be reported on Schedule A of the Year-End Quarterly report filed on January 31, 2008.

The listing of contributors on the RFAI addendum titled "Possible Excessive and / or Prohibited Contributions" has been carefully reviewed. Corrected aggregates for contributors determined to be one and the same individual are shown on the best efforts amendment filed on December 31, 2007. Refunds of excessive contribution amounts for the following contributors were issued on December 28, 2007.

Philmore Anderson	Adam Kirsch
Winston Capel	Gary Lopes
Sandra Deardoff	Woodbury Titcomb
Barbara Fisher	Paula Vial

Schedule D-P

All vendor debt was extinguished in the third quarter and consequently there was no outstanding debt to report. This is indicated in the Amendment to our October quarterly filing.

Schedule B-P

Baseball Tickets

The Ticket expenses for the New York Yankees were for campaign fundraising events held in connection with baseball games. Although we believe "Tickets" to be an accurate description of the expenditures, we will nonetheless amend our report to reflect your preferred description of "Fundraising Tickets."
